

Tyler E. Margolis

Associate
Chicago
tmargolis@schiffhardin.com

D 312.258.5592

Overview

Tyler E. Margolis is a member of the Finance Group where his practice focuses on a variety of financing transactions, including acquisition financings, mezzanine financings, senior and unsecured financings, private placements, and other structured financings.

Before joining Schiff Hardin, Tyler was an associate in the Corporate Group of a New York City law firm. Tyler represented non-bank financial institutions, institutional investors, and corporations in structuring and negotiating a broad range of finance and corporate matters, including asset-based loans, securitizations, institutional investments in FinTech platforms, and private middle-market mergers and acquisitions.

Practices

- Finance

Industries

- Financial Institutions

Credentials

Education

- Hofstra University, Maurice A. Deane School of Law, J.D., 2016, cum laude
Hofstra Law Review, Alumni Affairs Editor
William Eric Goldberg Memorial Scholarship
Hofstra Law Review, Thomson S. Horton Award of Excellence
- University of Maryland, B.S., Kinesiological Sciences, 2013
Primannum Honor Society

Bar Admissions

- Illinois
- New York

Professional Memberships

- American Bar Association
- New York State Bar Association
- New York City Bar Association

Languages Spoken & Fluency

- Spanish, Conversant

Insights

Other Publications

- "How Privilege Applies to Multinationals' In-House Counsel," (co-author) Law360 (Apr. 27, 2017)
- "Taking Down Your Shingle in New York: Ethics Rule Sets Forth Duties," (co-author) New York Law Journal (Dec. 2015)

Citizenship

Pro Bono Activities

In partnership with Kids in Need of Defense (KIND), Tyler represented a minor seeking Special Immigrant Juvenile status.